Cuyahoga County Public Library to hold focus group meetings in Parma

Library seeks public input on features of new and renovated branches

Parma, OH – September 1, 2011 – Cuyahoga County Public Library (CCPL) will hold several focus group meetings over the next several weeks to receive input from Parma and Seven Hills residents regarding two major capital projects. These meetings are open to all ages. Library representatives will be on hand at these meetings to hear what features and services residents would like to see in their Library branches.

Focus group meetings will be held at the Donna Smallwood Activities Center, 7001 West Ridgewood Drive, on Thursday, September 29th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, October 5th at 7:00 p.m. The subject of these meetings will be the new, single-story branch to be constructed east of Parma City Hall between Ridgewood Road and Powers Boulevard. The new branch will replace the existing Parma-South and Parma-Ridge branches. For more information, please call Parma-South Branch Manager Kathy Sullivan at 440.885.5362.

Focus group meetings will also be held in the meeting room of the Parma-Snow Branch, 2121 Snow Road, on Wednesday, September 14th at 7:00 p.m. and Wednesday, September 21st at 7:00 p.m. The subject of these meetings will be the renovation and expansion of the Parma-Snow Branch, which serves Parma and Seven Hills. For more information, please call Parma-Snow Branch Manager Stacey Boycik at 216.661.4240.
